Located within the walls of a historic gothic Church, our newly refurbished suite is an airy and flexible space lovingly restored to reflect its original glory. The suite allows for plentiful natural daylight through its magnificent stained glass windows and is extremely dynamic and adaptable permitting a wide variety of layout options. Combined with our excellent array of fully catered or buffet style offerings from our long established restaurant of over 30 years, as well as accessibility to a wide range of audio, visual and lighting equipment, it's the perfect venue for any occasion, small or large, private or corporate.
